THE VIOLA DA GAMBA IN FRANCE

Discover the rich sound of this rare and evocative seven-stringed instrument in a captivating program of French Baroque music performed by Dr. Brady Lanier, recent Indiana University doctoral graduate and member of The Governor's Musick at Colonial Williamsburg. Elegant, expressive, and deeply human, the music of the French viol school reveals one of the Baroque era's most distinctive sounds.

Free and open to the public. Parking lot behind the church off of N. Belmont Ave.
