

SAVE THE DATE

THE WHITE MASS

Honoring and blessing healthcare professionals

Sponsored by the Catholic Medical Association, Richmond Guild

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2026

HOLY MASS AT 5:30 PM

SAINT BENEDICT CATHOLIC CHURCH

300 N. Sheppard St. | Richmond, Virginia 23221

CELEBRANT

Most Reverend Barry C. Knestout

Bishop of Richmond

FEATURED SPEAKER

Rev. Tadeusz Pacholczyk, Ph.D.

("Fr. Tad")

Fr. Tad is Senior Ethicist at the National Catholic Bioethics Center. A priest, neuroscientist, and nationally recognized authority on Catholic bioethics, he writes and speaks widely on complex medical and moral issues.

A HIGHLY PERTINENT PRESENTATION ON

PHYSICIAN-ASSISTED SUICIDE

DINNER BANQUET - 7:00 PM

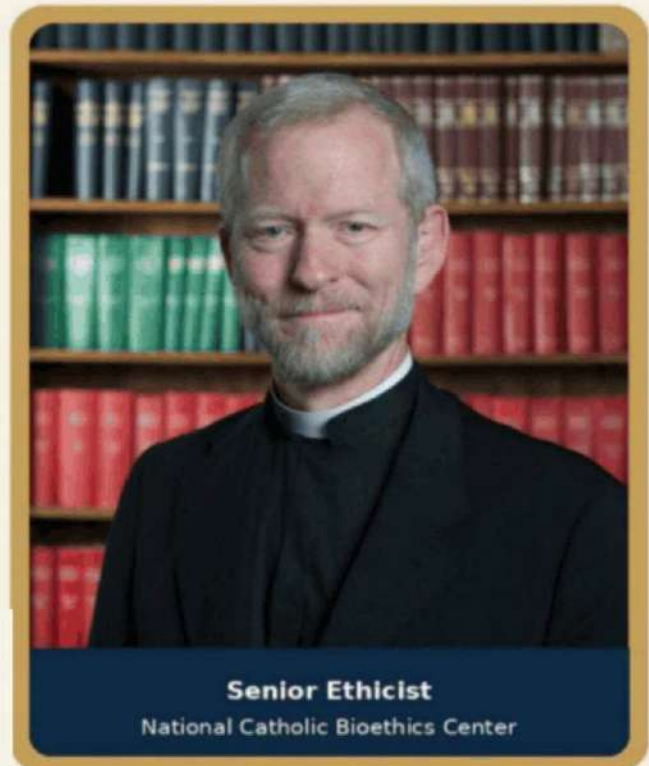

St. Anselm Hall, St. Benedict Catholic School

3100 Grove Avenue, Richmond, VA 23221

(2 blocks from Saint Benedict Catholic Church)

Dinner and wine included.

Adults $30 | Medical students $10 | Clergy complimentary

Senior Ethicist

National Catholic Bioethics Center

Registration available for the first 90 participants - space is limited!
Healthcare professionals, families, students, and friends are welcome.

White coats and professional attire are encouraged.

Questions?

RichmondCMAGuild@gmail.com

Sponsored by the Richmond Guild, A Chartered Guild of the Catholic Medical Association

